Terms and Conditions

- This mandate will remain in full force until all amounts owed by the home loan account holder to the lender have been repaid in full.
- This mandate only reflects the interest and capital reduction amount for this bond. It does not include any fees, insurance or assurance premiums. A repayment letter will be sent to the home loan account holder after registration of this bond, which will reflect the full repayment amount.
- The lender may from time to time change the interest, fees and charges amounts, time for payment and how often the lender can charge these. The lender will give the home loan account holder at least 5 (five) business days' notice of the change.
- The undersigned party/parties agree to the lender deducting the amounts due (repayment and arrear amounts) from the debit order account until this credit agreement has been paid in full. If there are insufficient funds, the lender will track this debit order account and deduct the payments due (which includes the repayment and arrear amounts) once funds are available.
- For changes to this mandate, the undersigned party/parties understand that the new instruction will not be processed if the current debit order is due to be processed within 3 (three) days of the lender receiving this request.
- The undersigned party/parties authorise the financial institution at which the debit order account is held to debit the debit order account with the amounts drawn by the lender.
- The undersigned party/parties agree that the repayment date may change and may be aligned to an earlier salary date in December.
- If the repayment date falls on a non-processing day (like Sunday or official public holiday), the undersigned party/parties agree that the lender may process the payment on the preceding business day.
- Changing the debit order date may have an impact on the interest calculated if the period between when the interest is billed is more than 31 days, as interest is calculated daily.
- If this is a third party debit order and the third party debit order is cancelled, it is the obligation of the home loan account holder to implement the required debit order for the full and continuous fulfilment of repayments of his/her/their home loan.
- The undersigned party/parties note that this debit order authority and mandate may only be ceded or assigned to a third party if the credit agreement is also ceded or assigned to a third party. The undersigned party/parties hereby consent to the cession or assignment of this authority and mandate should the credit agreement be ceded or assigned to a third party.
